

←
Turkish Delight

Equally suited to beach or after-tub shimmy, these superabsorbent cotton towels are handwoven with the same ancient method used to make those at the famous Turkish baths centuries ago. ($52 each; scentsandfeel.com)

↑
Bouquet in a Bottle

Kai's Body Butter and Body Buffer were two of Oprah's "Favorite Things," and now its subtle room spray will infuse your linens and living space with scents of lily, jasmine, white musk, and gardenia. (Kai, $52 for 100 milliliters; barneys.com)

↓
Southern Comfort

Handmade in Charleston, South Carolina, these biscuits are a rich, buttery hostess gift—they'll add a dollop of decadence to breakfast or a late-night snack break. (Callie's Charleston Biscuits, $34 to $46 for two dozen; calliesbiscuits.com)

↑
Got Milk

Glass baby bottles are back, this time with a silicone sleeve that protects against breakage and helps your little darling get a grip. (Lifefactory Wee-Go, $18 for a nine-ounce bottle; greendepot.com)

→
Supersaver Soaker

The handy valve at the bottom of these 30-inch hose attachments (available in six zippy colors) lets you conserve water—and have a little fun!—while giving your thirsty plants a deep drink. (Dramm, $26 each; amazon.com)

